Meetings, Incentives & Cruise Services

When it comes to building an unforgettable incentive package in Southern Africa, the innovative MICE specialists at Private Safaris will find the perfect location. The options are vast and can include beach getaways, safari lodges, lakeside retreats, a desert oasis and beautiful spa resorts. There is no limit to the size of events we can manage, from teambuilding and gala dinners to launches, weddings, meetings and all manner of corporate getaways. Our cruise department offers a complete shorex solution, handling pre & post cruise packages, overland tours as well as passenger turnaround. Bespoke itineraries and a creative approach to the management of all travel services allow cruise and incentive groups to discover Africa in style.

Why Us?

1 We will take your brief, and make it come alive in Southern Africa! We work closely with you to develop a thorough understanding into what really matters for your corporate travel. These fully developed requirements enable us to conceptualize and present a wholly realised itinerary.

2 80% of our MICE staff have had previous work experience within an agency environment. This insight into the client side, coupled with extensive DMC and destination knowledge, ensures that the Private Safaris MICE department remains a cut above the rest. We aim to ensure that your user experience is as seamless and enjoyable as possible.

3 From initial quote to touch down in Southern Africa, you will be dealing with the same dedicated Project Coordinator. This consistency offers you peace of mind, knowing that the talented person you worked so well with during preparations is ensuring the smooth running of your carefully crafted itinerary.

4 We understand the importance of brand recognition to an incentive group. A strong incentive brand is a great way to build a connection, motivate engagement and encourage loyalty. From venue to menu, we are constantly innovating new ways to promote your corporate identity.

5 Our focus on creativity and ensuring that we put that WOW factor into every incentive is matched only by our focus on preserving your budget. We pour our imagination and effort into each group, offering a fast turnaround time, instant access to comprehensive product information and 24 hour emergency contact on site.
